Welcome to Zion Lutheran Church!

In Jesus' name we welcome you to worship today. May God bless you through his Word of grace and give you the peace and joy that come only from Jesus!

Welcome Guests!

We pray the service will be a blessing for you. Please do us the honor of filling out the guest register located in the narthex. Should you desire any further information about Zion, our Pastor will be happy to speak with you after the service. Additional notes about our Church are printed on the back page of this bulletin.

THEME OF THE DAY

Marriage is a blessing from God that our society does not take very seriously anymore. With divorce numbers at their highest, its time to remember what our God tells us about marriage.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty God, in your bountiful goodness keep us safe from every evil of body and soul. Make us ready, with cheerful hearts, to do whatever pleases you; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

FIRST LESSON

Genesis 2:18–24

The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is a suitable partner for him." Out of the soil the LORD God had formed every wild animal and every bird of the sky, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called every living creature, that became its name. The man gave names to all the livestock, and to the birds of the sky, and to every wild animal, but for Adam no helper was found who was a suitable partner for him. The LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep. As the man slept, the LORD God took a rib and closed up the flesh where it had been. The LORD God built a woman from the rib that he had taken from the man and brought her to the man. The man said, Now this one is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. She will be called "woman," because she was taken out of man. For this reason a man will leave his father and his mother and will remain united with his wife, and they will become one flesh.

PSALM OF THE DAY

Psalm 150 (Page 6 of Bulletin)

SECOND LESSON

Hebrews 2:9-11

But we look to Jesus (the one who was made lower than the angels for a little while, so that by God’s grace he might taste death for everyone), now crowned with glory and honor, because he suffered death. Certainly it was fitting for God (the one for whom and through whom everything exists), in leading many sons to glory, to bring the author of their salvation to his goal through sufferings. For he who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified all have one Father. For that reason, he is not ashamed to call them brothers.

VERSE OF THE DAY

Alleluia. I will proclaim your name to my people, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you. Alleluia. (Hebrew 2:12)

GOSPEL

Mark 10:2-16

Some Pharisees came to test him and asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” He replied, “What did Moses command you?” They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away.” But Jesus told them, “He wrote this command for you because of your hard hearts. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let no one separate.” In the house his disciples asked him about this again. He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. If she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.” Some people began bringing little children to Jesus so that he would touch them. But the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said, “Let the little children come to me! Do not hinder them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen I tell you: Whoever will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.” And he took the little children in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

LWMS Sewing Project

We now have all the materials we need to make the pencil cases. What we need now are volunteers to help sew the materials into pencil cases. The volunteers will meet every Tuesday in October at 1:00pm in the fellowship hall. If you're not sure you have the ability to help, come anyway and you will see how easy these are to make. This is a great opportunity to enjoy some fellowship and give to a greater cause. If you need more information call Susan Rudolph at 715-923-8799.

Sunday Morning Bible Class

Sunday morning bible class returns today at 10:15am in the fellowship hall. Then each month following, on the second Sunday of the month. The theme for first Bible Class will look into the Islam faith. How do I approach Muslims with the gospel? How are Islam and Christianity different? How do Muslims view the Bible and Christ? If you've asked yourself any of these questions, this insightful class will provide the answers. In our Bible Class, Speaking the Truth in Love to Muslims, you will learn more about their history and religion and how to witness to them. This lesson provides a concise summary of the Lutheran law and gospel approach to Islam. This will be a four lesson course that will begin on today and continue on the second Sunday of the month beginning in November.

Bible Information Class

Are you or someone you know interested in becoming a member of Zion. We are currently making plans to hold a group Bible Information Course on Thursdays beginning in the middle of October. The class will go through the teachings of the Bible as you prepare for membership. Everyone is welcome to attend the class, even if you are already a member just looking to review what the Bible teaches. If you are interested please talk to Pastor Myslik. We will have more details in the coming weeks.

Zion History Booklets

If you did not pick up your free copy of the history booklet, they can be found on the table in the Narthex. If you can deliver a booklet to someone, please help us with that. If you would like additional booklets see Allen for a copy.

150th Anniversary DVD's Available

If you would like a copy of the church service followed by the historical presentation just contact the church office. The cost for the DVD will be a $1.00 donation.

Quarterly Congregational Meeting

On October 21st, following our worship service we will be holding our quarterly meeting. Election of council members is on the agenda. All members of the congregation are invited to join us for this meeting.

Note To Visitors

We sing the Psalms! Before the service it might help to read through the instructions on page 63 of the hymnal.

Personal Prayers for Worship may be found on pages 10-11 of the hymnal.

If your child becomes restless, that's okay....We love having children in worship at Zion. Feel free to step into the fellowship hall or to use the cry room near the west entry until your little one settles. There are speakers in both areas.

Restrooms are at the west end entry area also. Changing tables for babies are in each.

Holy Communion

Holy Communion is celebrated on the first and the third Sundays of each month (and the Mondays after). In the Lord's Supper, our Savior offers unworthy sinners a personal pledge of forgiveness of sins through His body and blood. As He draws repentant sinners to himself, he also draws them into a special bond of fellowship with one another. In the WELS, we demonstrate this special fellowship bond in what is called "close communion." Thus, if you have never communed with us before, we ask that you first speak with our pastor. He will share with you the steps toward establishing communion fellowship. Thank you for respecting our practice. Personal preparation help is found on page 156 in the hymnal.

Our Mission Statement

As a family of believers in Christ and members of His Kingdom, our congregation exists to worship, praise and honor the Triune God, share His pure Gospel message, encourage one another to grow stronger in faith through daily use of the Word, and urge each other to demonstrate such faith in daily living.
