Welcome to Zion Lutheran Church!

In Jesus' name we welcome you to worship today. May God bless you through his Word of grace and give you the peace and joy that come only from Jesus!

Welcome Guests!

We pray the service will be a blessing for you. Please do us the honor of filling out the guest register located in the narthex. Should you desire any further information about Zion, our Pastor will be happy to speak with you after the service. Additional notes about our Church are printed on the back page of this bulletin.

THEME OF THE DAY

Today the Lord calls us to the heavenly banquet. Let nothing hinder our attendance.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Luther's Morning Prayer

I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, your dear Son, that you have kept me this night from all harm and danger. Keep me this day this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please you. Into your hands I commend my body and soul and all things. Let your holy angel be with me, that the wicked foe may have no power over me. Amen

FIRST LESSON

Genesis 2:18–24

Now the king of Aram was at war with Israel. After conferring with his officers, he said, "I will set up my camp in such and such a place." The man of God sent word to the king of Israel: "Beware of passing that place, because the Arameans are going down there." So the king of Israel checked on the place indicated by the man of God. Time and again Elisha warned the king, so that he was on his guard in such places. This enraged the king of Aram. He summoned his officers and demanded of them, "Will you not tell me which of us is on the side of the king of Israel?" "None of us, my lord the king," said one of his officers, "but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the very words you speak in your bedroom." "Go, find out where he is," the king ordered, "so I can send men and capture him." The report came back: "He is in Dothan." Then he sent horses and chariots and a strong force there. They went by night and surrounded the city. When the servant of the man of God got up and went out early the next morning, an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. "Oh, my lord, what shall we do?" the servant asked. "Don't be afraid," the prophet answered. "Those who are with us are more than those who are with them." And Elisha prayed, "O LORD, open his eyes so he may see." Then the LORD opened the servant's eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

PSALM OF THE DAY

Psalm 90 Pg. 99

SECOND LESSON

Hebrews 3:1-6

Therefore, holy brothers, who share in the heavenly calling, focus your attention on Jesus, the apostle and high priest whom we confess. He was faithful to the one who appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in God's whole house. In fact, Jesus is worthy of greater glory than Moses, in the same way that the builder of a house has more honor than the house. For every house is built by someone, and God is the one who built everything. Moses was faithful as a servant within God's whole house by testifying to the things that would be spoken. But Christ is faithful as a Son over God's house. We are his house, if we hold on firmly to our confidence and the hope about which we boast until the end.

VERSE OF THE DAY

Alleluia. This is the Lord, we trust him; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation. Alleluia. (Isaiah 25:9)

GOSPEL

Mark 10:17-27

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, one man ran up to him and knelt in front of him. He asked, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one—God. You know the commandments. 'You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not give false testimony. You shall not defraud. Honor your father and mother.'" The man replied, "Teacher, I have kept all these since I was a child." Jesus looked at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." When he heard this, he looked sad and went away grieving, because he had great wealth. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus told them again, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in their riches to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." They were even more astonished and said to one another, "Who then can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For people, it is impossible, but not for God, because all things are possible for God."

Bible Information Class

Are you or someone you know interested in becoming a member of Zion. We are currently making plans to hold a group Bible Information Course on Thursdays beginning in the middle of October. The class will go through the teachings of the Bible as you prepare for membership. Everyone is welcome to attend the class, even if you are already a member just looking to review what the Bible teaches. If you are interested please talk to Pastor Myslik. We will have more details in the coming weeks.

New Members Welcome Dinner

We have had several new members join Zion in the past few months and we would like to give you an opportunity to meet them. After church on November 11th, we will have our monthly bible class at 10:00am. After Sunday School is finished at 11:15am, we are going to host a welcome dinner for everyone to have a chance to meet them. We hope you take this opportunity to come and greet them. This is not a pot-luck dinner, just come and enjoy.

LWMS Pencil Cases Project

The sewing volunteers will meet every Tuesday in October at 1:00pm in the fellowship hall. This is a great opportunity to enjoy some fellowship and give to a greater cause. If you need more information call Susan Rudolph at 715-923-8799.

Sunday Morning Bible Class

Sunday morning bible class will meet again on November 11th at 10:00am. The theme for this Bible Class will look into the Islam faith. In this Bible Class, Speaking the Truth in Love to Muslims, you will learn more about their history and religion and how to witness to them. This lesson provides a concise summary of the Lutheran law and gospel approach to Islam. This will be a four lesson course that will meet on the second Sunday of each month.

New Edition of Catechism Impacts Homes, Churches, and Schools

In June 2017, Northwestern Publishing House (NPH) released a new edition of Luther's Small Catechism. Since then, this version has had an impact in thousands of homes, churches, and schools.

First published in 1529, Luther's Small Catechism has served as a powerful resource for Lutheran students and families. Its lessons consist of a series of questions and answers based on the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, the Lord's Prayer, Baptism, the Keys and Confession, and the Lord's Supper.

Developed in collaboration with Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary, NPH's 2017 version of Luther's Small Catechism retains the signature question-and-answer style and lesson topics. New additions include enhanced diagrams of important concepts, information on historical Bible accounts, suggestions for applying Lutheran beliefs practically, and more.

In a February issue of Together, WELS President Mark Schroeder commented on the 2017 catechism's potential for lifelong devotional use in the home.

"Luther often encouraged faithful Christians to study and review the catechism as a part of their daily devotional lives," he said. "With that in mind, the newly revised WELS catechism is formatted in such a way to encourage our members to use the catechism on a daily basis, long after they have been confirmed."

Congregation members at Grace, Milwaukee, Wis., share their thoughts on their weekly household use of the new catechism in the church's blog series called "As for Me and My House."

"As someone who grew up on the catechism in school, I have greatly appreciated the refreshed format of the new catechism," Grace's church councilman Jared Greanya said. "After reading a chapter together, my wife and I pick out the specific content that is easily understood by our children and then study that content with them the following evening."

New teaching resources from NPH support the 2017 catechism. Growing in the Word is a new curriculum designed to teach Bible history to catechism students who may be unfamiliar with the historical accounts recorded in God's Word.

"Some kids down here don't know Bible history the same way many kids in Lutheran elementary schools do up north," says Rev. John Boggs, pastor at Divine Savior, West Palm Beach, Fla. "I've been searching for a good way to incorporate that into my catechism teaching, and this seems like an awesome opportunity for us."

Growing in Grace is another new curriculum from NPH. Focusing on the six chief parts of Luther's Small Catechism, it serves as a complement to Growing in the Word.

Cookie Walk / Bake Sale Saturday, November 10th 8:30am to 12:30pm

The Ladies Aid is hosting a Cookie Walk / Bake Sale and is asking the congregation to get involved. On Saturday, November 10th from 8:30am to 12:30pm in our Fellowship Hall we will invite the community to buy baked items from the congregation. The ladies are planning on using the proceeds from this sale to help provide for needy families in our community this Christmas. Can you bake? Make your favorite family recipe and drop it off Friday Nov. 9th between 9:00am to Noon in the conference room or any time after 2:00pm in the Fellowship Hall. The more you bake the more we make! The Ladies Aid will be setting up for the bake sale on Friday after 2:00pm and would appreciate any help with this that you can offer. If you have any questions, please contact any Ladies Aid member.

There is a sign up sheet in the fellowship hall for your donations.

We would like to thank the Ladies Aid for the purchase of new catechism books for our confirmation class. They regularly buy new books for the seventh grade, but this year the catechism books changed and they also purchased new books for the eight graders as well.

Snow Birds

If you are planning on going south for the winter, give Allen your address and he will send you weekly mailings.

Quarterly Congregational Meeting

On October 21st, following our worship service we will be holding our quarterly meeting. Election of council members is on the agenda. All members of the congregation are invited to join us for this meeting.

Note To Visitors

We sing the Psalms! Before the service it might help to read through the instructions on page 63 of the hymnal.

Personal Prayers for Worship may be found on pages 10-11 of the hymnal.

If your child becomes restless, that's okay....We love having children in worship at Zion. Feel free to step into the fellowship hall or to use the cry room near the west entry until your little one settles. There are speakers in both areas.

Restrooms are at the west end entry area also. Changing tables for babies are in each.

Holy Communion

Holy Communion is celebrated on the first and the third Sundays of each month (and the Mondays after). In the Lord's Supper, our Savior offers unworthy sinners a personal pledge of forgiveness of sins through His body and blood. As He draws repentant sinners to himself, he also draws them into a special bond of fellowship with one another. In the WELS, we demonstrate this special fellowship bond in what is called "close communion." Thus, if you have never communed with us before, we ask that you first speak with our pastor. He will share with you the steps toward establishing communion fellowship. Thank you for respecting our practice. Personal preparation help is found on page 156 in the hymnal.

Our Mission Statement

As a family of believers in Christ and members of His Kingdom, our congregation exists to worship, praise and honor the Triune God, share His pure Gospel message, encourage one another to grow stronger in faith through daily use of the Word, and urge each other to demonstrate such faith in daily living.
