Welcome to Zion Lutheran Church!

In Jesus' name we welcome you to worship today. May God bless you through his Word of grace and give you the peace and joy that come only from Jesus!

Welcome Guests!

We pray the service will be a blessing for you. Please do us the honor of filling out the guest register located in the narthex. Should you desire any further information about Zion, our Pastor will be happy to speak with you after the service. Additional notes about our Church are printed on the back page of this bulletin.

THEME OF THE DAY

The sure promise of salvation leads the Christian to be persistent in prayer and faith. Just as Jacob and the widow of Jesus' parable were bold in their requests, so may every believer feel confident in bringing his most earnest prayers to our loving God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Lord, keep your household, the Church, in continual godliness and set us free from all adversities, that under your protection, we may serve you with true devotion and holy deeds; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 53:10-12

Yet it was the LORD's will to crush him and allow him to suffer. Because you made his life a guilt offering, he will see offspring. He will prolong his days, and the LORD's gracious plan will succeed in his hand. After his soul experiences anguish, he will see the light of life. He will provide satisfaction. Through their knowledge of him, my just servant will justify the many, for he himself carried their guilt. Therefore I will give him an allotment among the great, and with the strong he will share plunder, because he poured out his life to death, and he let himself be counted with rebellious sinners. He himself carried the sin of many, and he intercedes for the rebels.

PSALM OF THE DAY

Psalms CWS 122 Pg. (6)

SECOND LESSON

Hebrews 4:9-16

So there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God. For the one who enters God's rest also rests from his own work, just as God rested from his work. Therefore, let us make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall into the same pattern of disobedience. For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any double-edged sword. It penetrates even to the point of dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow, even being able to judge the ideas and thoughts of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from him, but everything is uncovered and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we will give an account. Therefore, since we have a great high priest, who has gone through the heavens, namely, Jesus the Son of God, let us continue to hold on to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are, yet was without sin. So let us approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

VERSE OF THE DAY

Alleluia. For we are god’s workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works. Alleluia. (Ephesians 2:10a)

GOSPEL

Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached him and said, “Teacher, we wish that you would do for us whatever we ask.” He said to them, “What do you want me to do for you?” They said to him, “Promise that we may sit, one at your right and one at your left, in your glory.” But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink or be baptized with the baptism that I am going to be baptized with?” “We can,” they replied. Jesus told them, “You will drink the cup that I am going to drink and be baptized with the baptism that I am going to be baptized with. But to sit at my right or at my left is not for me to give; rather, these places belong to those for whom they have been prepared.” When the ten heard this, they were angry with James and John. Jesus called them together and said, “You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. But that is not the way it is to be among you. Instead, whoever wants to be great among you will be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you will be a slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Cookie Walk / Bake Sale Saturday, November 10th 8:30am to 12:30pm

The Ladies Aid is hosting a Cookie Walk / Bake Sale and is asking the congregation to get involved. On Saturday, November 10th from 8:30am to 12:30pm in our Fellowship Hall we will invite the community to buy baked items from the congregation. The ladies are planning on using the proceeds from this sale to help provide for needy families in our community this Christmas. Can you bake or make candy? Make your favorite family recipe and drop it off Friday Nov. 9th between 9:00am to Noon in the conference room or any time after 2:00pm in the Fellowship Hall. The more you bake the more we make! The Ladies Aid will be setting up for the bake sale on Friday after 2:00pm and would appreciate any help with this that you can offer. If you have any questions, please contact any Ladies Aid member.

There is a sign up sheet in the fellowship hall for your donations.

Sunday Morning Bible Class

Sunday morning bible class will meet again on November 11th at 10:00am. The theme for this Bible Class will look into the Islam faith. In this Bible Class, Speaking the Truth in Love to Muslims, you will learn more about their history and religion and how to witness to them. This lesson provides a concise summary of the Lutheran law and gospel approach to Islam. This will be a four lesson course that will meet on the second Sunday of each month.

Snow Birds

If you are planning on going south for the winter, give Allen your address and he will send you weekly mailings.

Quarterly Congregational Meeting

Today, following our worship service we will be holding our quarterly meeting. Election of council members is on the agenda. All members of the congregation are invited to join us for this meeting.

New Members Welcome Dinner

We have had several new members join Zion in the past few months and we would like to give you an opportunity to meet them. After church on November 11th, we will have our monthly bible class at 10:00am. After Sunday School is finished at 11:15am, we are going to host a welcome dinner for everyone to have a chance to meet them. We hope you take this opportunity to come and greet them. This is not a pot-luck dinner, just come and enjoy.

Note To Visitors

We sing the Psalms! Before the service it might help to read through the instructions on page 63 of the hymnal.

Personal Prayers for Worship may be found on pages 10-11 of the hymnal.

If your child becomes restless, that's okay....We love having children in worship at Zion. Feel free to step into the fellowship hall or to use the cry room near the west entry until your little one settles. There are speakers in both areas.

Restrooms are at the west end entry area also. Changing tables for babies are in each.

Holy Communion

Holy Communion is celebrated on the first and the third Sundays of each month (and the Mondays after). In the Lord's Supper, our Savior offers unworthy sinners a personal pledge of forgiveness of sins through His body and blood. As He draws repentant sinners to himself, he also draws them into a special bond of fellowship with one another. In the WELS, we demonstrate this special fellowship bond in what is called "close communion." Thus, if you have never communed with us before, we ask that you first speak with our pastor. He will share with you the steps toward establishing communion fellowship. Thank you for respecting our practice. Personal preparation help is found on page 156 in the hymnal.

Our Mission Statement

As a family of believers in Christ and members of His Kingdom, our congregation exists to worship, praise and honor the Triune God, share His pure Gospel message, encourage one another to grow stronger in faith through daily use of the Word, and urge each other to demonstrate such faith in daily living.
